26. (Unclassified - THW) LIAISON Judy Blanchard, secretary on the Senate Foreign Relations Foreign Economic Policy Subcommittee, called to state that she had not yet received the classified reports she had requested earlier on international oil developments and economic indicator publications, and wondered where the matter stood. I told her I would check again with the appropriate people and get back to her. I then checked with [REDACTED] NFAC/CSS, and she said they would begin to forward the material to the Committee and that it would be available for staff review there.

27. (Unclassified - ELS) BRIEFING The House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee briefing on the Soviet Merchant Marine was postponed. No new date has been set.

28. (Unclassified - MG) CONSTITUENT Received a call from Patty Furry, in the office of Representative Robert Lagomarsino (R., Calif.), asking how a constituent could get a copy of the Agency's energy report. I gave Ms. Furry the correct title of the report, the report number, and told her the constituent could obtain a copy from the Library of Congress. She thanked me for the information.

29. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Forwarded via courier to Gwen Pritchard, in the office of Representative Ike Skelton (D., Mo.), the text of the documents released under the Freedom of Information Act on the attack on the USS Liberty as promised previously.

31. (Unclassified - RLB) LEGISLATION John McLaughlin, on the staff of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Subcommittee on Consumer Protection and Finance, called to inform me that H.R. 3815, the corporate bribery bill, would be up for House consideration on 25 October under a suspension of rules (i.e., a straight up and down vote with no amendments). We agreed to be back in touch next week to discuss making sure our concerns with this legislation are taken care of at the conference.
